Sermon Notes – Why the Birth of Jesus?

Matthew 20:28 | The birth of Jesus represents the “incarnation,” or God becoming man. Why did Jesus have to come to the earth?

1. Why did God become human?
 - A. To _____ and _____ the lost
 - B. To _____ the devil’s work
 - C. To _____ his life as a ransom
2. Why were Joseph and Mary his parents?
3. Why was Jesus born at this time and location?
4. Why was Jesus born in a stable in Bethlehem?
5. For whom was Jesus born?

He was born to offer salvation and redemption from sin, that every human might receive the free gift of God!

Discussion Questions

1. Is there a city or country associated with your genealogy?
2. What did God consider regarding the birth of Jesus?
3. Why were Joseph, Mary, and Bethlehem important?
4. What detail(s) intrigued you about His birth?
5. What must one do to “book reservations” in God’s home?
