Sermon Notes – Making “Cents” With Relationships

2 Corinthians 8:1- 8 | How we view our money and possessions (as stewards) is a barometer of our spiritual maturity. Paul highlights 13 “giving” examples of the Macedonians and Jesus Christ in this chapter.

Macedonian principles of giving/stewardship (8:1-8):

By God's _____ (8 :1) _____ circumstances (8:2a),
with _____ (8:2b), unhindered by _____ (8:2c),
_____ (8:2d), _____ (8:3a), _____ (8:3b),
_____ (8:3c), _____, not obligated (8:4), as an act of _____ (8:5a), in _____ to leaders (8:5b-6), in harmony with godly _____ (8:7), as proof of _____ (8:8)

Jesus Christ's summary of giving (8:9):

G_____ 's R_____ A_____ C_____ 's E_____ (getting what isn't deserved)

As you take ownership of these principles of stewardship, you will see the grace of God taking root in all areas of your life!

Discussion Questions/fill in's:

1. How is a barometer different than a thermostat?

The _____ of money is the root of all kinds of evil.

Where your treasure is, there will your _____ be also.

Give to God first and watch Him _____.
